Objective

Statutory objective of the organisation. What does the organisation seek to achieve?

To protect, educate and empower children to rise above adversity using the power of play

Outline of the policy plan

Please answer the questions below or fill in the URL to the policy plan after the last question about the policy plan.

This online policy plan should at least provide answers to the questions about the policy plan asked here

What are the institution's activities? When are which activities to be carried out? And how do the activities contribute to achieving the organisation's objective?

For more than 20 years, we have delivered programs with impact in both development and humanitarian contexts. As pioneers in a unique approach to learning, both inside and outside of the classroom, we harness play, one of the most fundamental forces in a child's life, to help children dismantle barriers and embrace opportunities. We are the only global development organization focused exclusively on using the power of play to transform children's lives.

We reach 2.3 million children each year in 15 countries around the world. By collaborating with teachers, governments, communities, and parents, we unlock children's potential, enabling them to make positive and healthy choices and to create better futures for themselves, their families and their societies.

How does the organisation generate income or revenue?

Right To Play secures contributions from the general public in Canada, United States, United Kingdom, Netherlands, Switzerland, Germany and Norway. These contributions are solicited through typical charitable entity fundraising activities such as solicitations of individuals, events and marketing activities.

Right To Play also receives grants from a variety of government and institutional donors for specific projects. Grantors include governments such as the Canadian and Norwegian development agencies, corporate foundations such as the Dutch Postcode Lottery or the LEGO Foundation and from directed major gifts from individuals that are restricted.

How and for what purposes are the revenues spent?
If your organisation holds capital, please fill in here where and how this capital is held (e.g. savings account, investments, etc.)

Right To Play spends the revenue on charitable activities promoting play based learning for children in the global South with a focus on results in education, health, girls empowerment and child protection. The countries of operation include Mali, Uganda, Rwanda, Tanzania, Mozambique, Ghana, Ethiopia, Senegal, Lebanon, Jordan, Palestinian Territories and Pakistan. Right To Play also has entities that are focused on fundraising and public engagement in the US, Canada, UK, Netherlands, Germany and Switzerland. In addition, Right To Play has global headquarter offices in Toronto, Canada and London, UK.

Remuneration policy
 Remuneration policy for the statutory board, for the members of the policy-making body and for staff (e.g. collective labour agreement or salary scheme).

Right To Play International's Board of Directors are not remunerated per the organization's bylaws. Right To Play management and staff are compensated based on a policy to pay at the 50th percentile of comparable peer organizations in the charitable sector. Right To Play benchmarks its pay by engaging Birches Group to conduct salary surveys and comparisons to peers. Lastly management and staff are only compensated by salary and there is no bonus structure or incentive scheme.
